Call for Submissions

2022 International Symposium on Autoethnography and Narrative Inquiry

January 2-5, 2022

Given the continued prevalence of Covid-19 nationally and internationally, travel restrictions, and the uncertainty and financial constraints faced by many scholars, the 2022 International Symposium on Autoethnography and Narrative (ISAN) will be a fully online conference. The conference will occur via Zoom on January 2-5, 2022. Eastern Standard Time (EST) will be used for all conference activities.

ISAN will provide scholars and practitioners of all experience levels an opportunity to present their autoethnographic and personal narrative projects and to participate in dialogue and sociability with scholars across a variety of disciplines. We invite submissions of papers, performances, and panels to be considered for presentation. Creative and innovative approaches to autoethnography and personal narrative are encouraged. Submissions might:

- Use autoethnography and/or personal narrative to engage social, political, cultural, and personal issues

- Address theoretical or methodological aspects of autoethnography and personal narrative
- Interrogate or advance autoethnographic and personal narrative practices

The deadline to submit a proposal is AUGUST 1, 2021.
